CAMPION HALL, OXFORD

STUDENT-COLLEGE CONTRACT

Introduction

1. A matriculated student at Oxford University is a member both of Oxford University and of one of its constituent Colleges or Private Halls. The two relationships are governed by separate, though interlinking, contracts. The purpose of this document is to identify the main terms of the contract which you will have with the Hall on acceptance of the offer of a place on a course which has been made to you. By signing and returning this document you will enter into a contract with the Hall (referred to as being the ‘College Contract’) on those terms.

University and Hall membership

2. The continuing relationship between you and the Hall is linked to your continuing relationship with the University. You agree as part of the Campion Hall College Contract to abide by the rules and regulations of the University, as amended from time to time in the course of your studies.

3. Once you become a member of the University by matriculation, your membership of the Hall will be conditional upon your remaining a member of the University. If you are subjected by the University to suspension or other sanctions, the Hall may also impose similar or other appropriate sanctions.

4. It is not possible for all the regulations governing your relationship with the Hall to be reproduced here in full. Most of these will be set out in the Hall Handbook which will be provided to you.

5. Campion Hall is primarily a religious community of Jesuits and it is expected that all members of the Hall will support its values and participate fully as is appropriate to the Hall community.

Undertakings by the Hall

Graduates

6. Teaching - The Hall will provide such support for graduate students as it reasonably decides to be necessary in connection with their pursuit of a course of studies at Oxford University.

7. Library and IT facilities – The Hall will provide library and IT facilities in connection with your studies and on the conditions and at the times set out in the Hall’s Handbook, which may vary from time to time. Facilities may be withdrawn in the event of adverse circumstances beyond the control of the Hall.

6. Residential accommodation. The Hall will maintain a stock of residential accommodation that may be provided to you in connection with your studies and on the terms and conditions agreed with you.

7. Meals. The College will provide meals on the terms and conditions agreed with you. Reasonable notice will be given where possible of any occasions on which meals will not be available.

Your Undertakings

8. You undertake to abide by the regulations of the Hall as set out in the Handbook, including regulations concerning study, payment of fees and charges and residence (see paragraphs 9, 10, and 11 below). Failure to abide by these regulations may lead to the imposition of disciplinary measures, which may include suspension or expulsion.

9. Study. You undertake to pursue satisfactorily such studies as are required of you by any tutor, fellow or lecturer, or other qualified person, assigned by the Hall (or University as the case may be) to teach you. For this purpose, studies include the reading of materials, carrying out prescribed activities such as practicals, the completion of written work, attendance in tutorials and classes and lectures, and the sitting of University and internal College examinations.

10. Fees and charges. You undertake to pay the fees and charges due to the University and to the Hall which, after consultation with students (in so far as concerns Hall charges), may vary from year to year and to provide any guarantee or security for the payment of such fees as the Hall may require. The Hall will collect University fees and transmit them to the University.

11. Residence. You undertake to comply with the University residence requirements.

Personal Data

12. By signing and returning this document, you agree to the collection, processing and use of individual personal data by the Hall for purposes connected with your studies, for the protection of health and safety whilst on Hall premises, and for maintenance of alumni relations and for any other lawful purposes. You also agree to the sharing by the Hall of such data for the same purposes with the University.

Jurisdiction

13. This contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with English Law. By signing and exchanging this document both you and the Hall submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts for the resolution of any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with the contract.
