

IGNATIAN LEADERSHIP

Summer Programme
for Jesuits in Formation

22 June 2024
to 6 July 2024

ABOUT

The two-week programme fosters the attitudes, skills, and knowledge of Ignatian leadership, drawing on Ignatian spirituality, contemporary leadership studies, and the psychology of human flourishing.

The Summer Programme is designed to complement the academic studies of Jesuits with formation in leadership, preparing them to be leaders for change in their future missions and institutions.

The Programme is led by the recognised authority on Ignatian leadership, David McCallum SJ, and is held at Champion Hall, the Jesuit postgraduate Hall in the University of Oxford. The Programme is offered by the British Province of the Society of Jesus and supported by the Jesuit Conference of European Provincials.

SPEAKERS

David McCallum SJ lectures and trains widely on Ignatian leadership. He is the Executive Director of the Discerning Leadership Program, which provides formation for senior Church leaders in Rome and internationally. The team will include Roger Dawson SJ, a clinical psychologist and Superior of the Jesuits in Scotland, John Dardis SJ, General Counselor for Discernment and Apostolic Planning at the General Curia in Rome, Nick Austin SJ, Master of Champion Hall, Austen Ivereigh, Fellow in Contemporary Church History at Champion Hall, and Deirdre Rowe, Partner in Mission and member of the spirituality team at St Beuno's Spirituality Centre.

Costs: £1200 (€ 1400)

Bursaries are available upon application to the British Province; travel not included.

Eligibility: The Programme is intended for pre-tertiary Jesuits in formation, although exceptions will be considered. It is especially suited to those in their first leadership roles.

Expressions of interest to Fr Nick Austin SJ:
master@champion.ox.ac.uk

“ One of the best courses I have had in 20 years in the Society. ”

“ This has clarified for me the Jesuit that I want to become. ”

“ I didn't expect the impact it had on me spiritually. ”

